2 WHO PROCESSES YOUR INFORMATION

Derby Diocesan Academy Trust 2 is the data controller for the purposes of the Data Protection Act 2018 and the UK General Data Protection Regulation (together the "Data Protection Law") of the personal information you provide to us. This means that the Trust determines the purposes, and the manner in which, any personal data is processed.

3 WHY WE COLLECT DATA

Pupil data is essential for the operation of the Trust and its schools. Whilst the majority of personal data we are provided with or collect is mandatory, some of it is provided to us on a voluntary basis. We will inform you whether you are required to provide certain pupil information to us or if you have a choice in this. We ask parents to keep pupil information up to date through a variety of methods, including online services for parents. Parents will receive invites to register from your school and reminders to update your information regularly throughout the school year.

We collect and hold personal information relating to our pupils and parents. When a child joins us from another school, we may receive a secure file containing relevant information called a Common Transfer File (CTF) and may use registration forms at the start of the school year. We may also receive information about pupils from the Local Authority, the Department for Education (DfE) and other bodies linked to pupils' education, development and welfare. We may share personal data with other agencies as necessary under our legal duties or otherwise in accordance with our duties and obligations as a Trust.

We will collect and process personal data to:

- Support our pupils' learning: to help every child achieve his or her potential in all areas of learning and to promote excellence in our teaching and learning environment.
- Monitor and report on their progress: to record pupils' progress to help set and monitor targets and boost the achievements and aspirations of all pupils.
- Provide appropriate pastoral care: to ensure that all pupils are properly supported in their time with us. We will process data to help staff understand and respond to the unique circumstances of all pupils.
- Deliver free entitlement places for two, three and four year olds: to check and calculate free entitlement; provide funding; provide advice, support and guidance to the setting; and to enable financial and policy compliance checks.
- Assess the quality of our services: so that we may reflect on our own practices to help us improve and provide the highest quality education that we can to all pupils.
- Ensure proper management of school trips and afterschool clubs and activities: when pupils and parents participate in school trips and afterschool clubs and activities personal data will need to be processed.
- Keep pupils safe and protect their welfare: to protect pupils, parents and staff in their involvement at the Trust, we must process personal data relating to matters such as incidents and responses to incidents, including safeguarding concerns.
- Meet statutory duties: placed upon us by the government for activities such as DfE data collections.

- informs 'short term' education policy monitoring and school accountability and intervention (for example, school GCSE results or Pupil Progress measures).
- supports 'longer term' research and monitoring of educational policy (for example how certain subject choices go on to affect education or earnings beyond school)

Data collection requirements

To find out more about the data collection requirements placed on us by the Department for Education (for example; via the school census) go to <https://www.gov.uk/education/data-collection-and-censuses-for-schools>.

The National Pupil Database (NPD)

Much of the data about pupils in England goes on to be held in the National Pupil Database (NPD). The NPD is owned and managed by the Department for Education and contains information about pupils in schools in England. It provides invaluable evidence on educational performance to inform independent research, as well as studies commissioned by the Department.

It is held in electronic format for statistical purposes. This information is securely collected from a range of sources including schools, local authorities and awarding bodies.

To find out more about the NPD, go to <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/national-pupil-database-user-guide-and-supporting-information>

Learning Records Service (LRS)

The information you supply is used by the Learning Records Service (LRS). The LRS issues Unique Learner Numbers (ULN) and creates Personal Learning records across England, Wales and Northern Ireland, and is operated by the Education and Skills Funding Agency, an executive agency of the Department for Education (DfE). For more information about how your information is processed, and to access your Personal Learning Record, please refer to: <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/lrs-privacy-notice>.

LRS collects information about learners registering for relevant post-14 qualifications, for example:

- Entry to Employment Certificates
- Regulated Qualifications Frameworks
- Welsh Baccalaureate and associated units

The LRS uses your information to:

- issue you with a Unique Learner Number (ULN)
- create your Personal Learning Record (PLR)

The ULN enables education and training sector organisations, and Awarding Organisations regulated by Ofqual in England, Qualifications in Wales (QiW) in Wales and CCEA in Northern Ireland, to share information about participation and achievement in a consistent and approved manner, promoting good information management practice, and helping to improve accuracy and efficiency. It benefits you through enhancing the application processes to Awarding Organisations, learning providers, learning advisors and other third parties.

The PLR stores your education and training participation and achievement information collected directly from educational institutions and other bodies.
