PRIVACY NOTICE FOR NURSERY TO PRIMARY TRANSITION PORTAL

Derby Diocesan Academy Trust ('the Trust', 'we', 'us' or 'our') take data protection and our obligations with regard to data protection seriously. Under data protection law, individuals have a right to be informed about how their employer uses any personal data held about them. We comply with this right by providing 'privacy notices' (sometimes called 'fair processing notices') to individuals where we are processing their personal data.

To improve the nursery to primary school transition process, DDAT accesses the personal data of children offered places at its schools via the 'Nursery to Primary Transition Portal'. Pupil personal data is securely uploaded by the child's early years' provider. Following National Offer day, schools will be able to request the personal data of pupils offered places at their school. The purpose of processing the data is to ensure that the schools have knowledge of all relevant pupil information and to support pupils during the transition process.

This Privacy Notice provides additional detail with regard to the Transition Portal. Please refer to www.ddat.org.uk/GDPR for copies of DDAT's other privacy notices for pupils and their families; staff; trustees, governors and other volunteers; and for the use of CCTV.

3. THE LAWFUL BASIS ON WHICH WE PROCESS THIS INFORMATION

The lawful basis for us to collect/process this personal data is in order to provide education in accordance with statute law (such as the Education Act 1996, section 83 of the Children Act 1989 and other legislation), our funding agreements with the Secretary of State, our memorandum and articles of association and other guidance provided for in law.

We also process personal data where processing is necessary for the performance of tasks carried out in the public interest. It is in the public interest to provide educational services to our pupils and to offer extra-curricular activities such as reading sessions and afterschool clubs to benefit the personal and academic growth of our pupils. In addition, personal data will be collected and/or processed for the purposes of relevant contracts for the provision of services which are paid for. This may include but is not limited to the provision of music tuition; school trips; and entering pupils for examinations.

Sometimes, we may also use your personal data where:

- You, or your parents/carers have given us permission to use it in a certain way (for example, school photographs for non-educational purposes)
- We need to protect your, or someone else's, vital interests (protect your life).

We do not process any special categories of personal data except where necessary for reasons of substantial public interest including the safeguarding of children and individuals at risk; the prevention of fraud; and preventing or detecting unlawful acts; in complying with legal obligations including under the Equality Act 2010; or where necessary to protect the vital interests of the Data Subject or of another natural person and where safeguards are in place to ensure that this personal data is kept secure.

For the avoidance of doubt where special categories of personal data are collected it shall not be used for the purposes of automated decision making and/or profiling. Further personal data including special categories of personal data may be collected and/or processed where consent has been given (for example, school photographs for non-educational purposes). If consent is the only legal basis for processing and has been given then this may be revoked in which case the personal data will no longer be collected/processed.

4. REQUESTING ACCESS TO YOUR PERSONAL DATA

You have the right to request access to information which we hold about you. To make a request for your personal information please contact the Trust's Data Protection Officer at Hayley.wharton@ddat.org.uk

You also have specific rights in relation to the processing of your data:

- To ask us for access to information about you that we hold.
- To have your personal data rectified, where possible, if it is inaccurate or incomplete.
- To request the deletion or removal of personal data where there is no compelling reason for its continued processing.
- To restrict our processing of your personal data (i.e. permitting its storage but no further processing).
- To object to direct marketing, including profiling, and processing for the purposes of scientific/historical research and statistics.
- Not to be subject to decisions based purely on automated processing where it produces a legal or similarly significant effect on you.

5. MAKING A COMPLAINT

If you have a concern about the way we are collecting or using your personal data, we ask that you raise your concern with us in the first instance. If you are unhappy with the way we have dealt with any of your concerns, you can make a complaint to the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO), the supervisory authority for data protection issues in England and Wales using the details below. The ICO is a wholly independent regulator established in order to enforce data protection law.
